- 3 Queen Anne. An interesting gold Ring set with a crystal beneath which are the initials "A. R.", with a crown in gold wire and a small skull in enamel, engraved inside "A.R. ob : 1 Augst 1774 aged 50"; and two other gold Rings with faceted crystal bezels, one of heart shape; ivory case (Nos. 10, 12 and 14) 4
-  Preserved in the original ivory box, this ring belonged to Col. Henry Murray and was formerly the property of his great-aunt Miss Elizabeth Mona Murray, a grand-daughter of the third Duke of Atholl.

Obt 19. Oct: 1717. AEt: 20.*" ; and seven other Rings (Nos. 15-22) 8

 The use of enamelled inscriptions was probably introduced from France and the Sympson ring is the earliest enamelled inscription in this Collection, dated 1717.

5 A George I gold Ring, set with a cornelian on which is engraved a coat-of-arms, ermine, on a chief or, indented, three escallops, on the back of the bezel is engraved "*Dic. Duc. Fer.  J. Lannoy was an eminent Turkey merchant. He lay in state at his house at Hammersmith and was buried in the chapel there in a very sumptuous manner, the procession being lighted by two hundred wax tapers. (British Journal, 25th January, 1724.)

7 A George I gold Ring with emerald-coloured paste bezel, the shank enamelled in white in five scrolls and inscribed "Dor: Tenison ob 8: Jan 1726 AEt: 15" ; five other Rings ; and an uncommon silver Memorial Ring of George I, engraved inside "*G: R obt
11 June 1727 aet 68*" (Nos. 36-43) 7

 The memorial ring of Dorothy Tenison, daughter of the Bishop of Ossory is the earliest example of the use of white enamel to commemorate the unmarried. The George I ring is one of only two in silver, the other is the John Gay ring below.

8 A George II gold Ring, the bezel with an almandine garnet between six rose diamonds on the shoulders, enamelled in black inside the shank "Johannes Sly. ob: 14 Apr: 1729. aet 63" ; and nine other good George II Memorial Rings with interesting data supplied in Crisp Catalogue (Nos. 44-53) 10

Norfolk, to whom there is a fully inscribed tablet in Broome Church (Nos. 64-71) 8
- 11 A George II rare silver Memorial Ring, enamelled in black in four divisions and inscribed "John Gay : ob : 4 Dec 1732 : ae : 48", in an original fish-skin case ; and seven other fine Memorial Rings, up to the year 1733 (Nos. 72-79) 9
-  John Gay, poet and dramatist has a monument by Rysbrack on the South Wall of the South Transept (Poet's Corner) Westminster Abbey, which was erected to his memory by the Duke and Duchess of Queensberry. This is one of the two silver memorial rings in the Collection ; the other is that of George I above.
- 12 Nine George II Memorial Rings in gold, including those of the Rt. Hon. Peter Lord King, William Humphreys, Esq., knighted 1704, "an oylman in the Poultry", Lord Mayor of London, 1715 ; and four others (Nos. 80-92) 13

"I leave 30 pound to bury me, I desire a velvet Hearse and Six Horses to carry me to Brumly to be laid by Mr. Wright, no holders at the Pall, to be buried and all over by daylight, Mr. Osgood to bury me."
- 15 Ten George II gold Memorial Rings, all of good quality and enamelled in black and white, including the names of Allen, Whitelock, Davy, Tucker, Whitfeld, Chester, Agnew, Cook, Holland and of Sir John Askew, to whom there is an inscription in Lyddiard Millicent Church, Co. Wilts. (Nos. 112-121) 10

- 17 Ten George II gold Memorial Rings, for the years 1742, 1743, including the following names : Perrott, Hodges, Alston, Bishop, Golding, Sutton, Bethell, Beekes, Seabrook, Sellon and Darlow (Nos. 132-141) 10

- inscription relating to Betty Tucker, who died in 1747 aged one year (Nos. 153-163) 11
-  Sir Lawrence Carter, Baron of the Exchequer, etc. See D.N.B., vol. IX, p. 202. In his Will, dated 31st of December, 1744, he left to his friend John Simpson of Leicester, Esq., 20 guineas to buy him a horse and a gold watch.
- 20 Simon, Lord Lovat. A Jacobite gold Ring, set with a crystal beneath which is some hair, the shoulders with rose diamonds, the shank enamelled in white in five scrolls, and inscribed “Sin : Ld : Lovat bed : 9 Apr 1747 ae 80”, and inside the shank engraved “Dulce et Decorum est Pro Patria Mori” (No. 164)

- 21 Twelve fine George II gold Memorial Rings, mostly enamelled on scrolling shanks and four with crystal bezels, including the following names: Pain, Feltnam, Breton, Fillmer, Shephard, Showell, Smith, Bunch, Carr and Moor, mostly for the years 1747, 1748 (Nos. 165-176) 12
- 22 Ten George II gold enamelled Rings; and a Duplicate Ring of Thomas and Sarah Day, to whom there is a long inscription on a stone in the Church Porch at Bray in Berkshire, for the year 1749 (Nos. 177-186) 11
- 23 A George II gold Memorial Ring with an inscription to Mary Blofeld, 1750, on the chancel floor of St. John’s Church, Hoveton, Norfolk, there is a long inscription to this family; and eleven others (Nos. 187-198) 12
- 24 Eleven George II gold Memorial Rings, with amethyst, paste and crystal bezels, mostly for the years 1751, 1752, including a plain black enamelled ring with skeleton, spade and pick, crossed, hour glass and crossbones, of Baptist Noel, 4th Earl of Gainsborough (Nos. 199-209) 11
- 25 A George II gold Memorial Ring, enamelled in white in five scrolls, and inscribed “Lucy Alie ob : 21 Sep : 1753 aet : 62.”; and ten other Rings, mostly enamelled and six set with crystal, paste or rose diamond bezel, for the years 1752, 1753 (Nos. 210-220) 11
-  Lucy Alie of Northaw, Hertfordshire, in her Will, dated 1752, left to the London Hospital in Goodman’s Fields £500, and to the Bethlehem Hospital also £500.

- 26 A George II gold Memorial Ring, set with five rose diamonds; another set with a crystal; another with an amethyst; seven others; and another containing hair between two crystals, inscribed "Ye Rt Hone Mattw Ld : Lowth : ob : 17 : June 1754 ae : 56." (Nos. 221-230) 10
-  Matthew Plunkett, only son and heir of Oliver, 8th Baron Lowth, by Mabella his wife, daughter of Henry, 2nd Viscount Barnswall of Kingsland, married in 1716 Susanna, sister of Christopher Mason of Blackheath.
- 27 Ten George II gold Memorial Rings, for the years 1754, 1755, including one of Sarah Harvey, who died on the 28th April, and another of Lady Barbara North, daughter of Thomas, Earl of Pembroke by his second wife, married, 3rd of October, 1730, William Dudley North of Glemham, Suffolk, and died 31st December, 1755, aged 43 (Nos. 231-240) 10
-  The Sarah Harvey ring is of interest as the initials of the stones, ruby, emerald, garnet, amethyst, ruby and diamond, form the word REGARD. Crisp quotes her Will at length, in which she leaves numerous rings to various friends and to Mrs. Lockley of St. George's, Hanover Square "My brown Negligée" and a guinea for a ring.
- 28 A George II gold Memorial Ring, set with paste beneath which is some hair, the shank enamelled in black in five scrolls and inscribed "Sr Wm Fleming Bart ob : 31 Mar : 1757 ae : 48." ; and eleven other good Rings, for the years 1756 and 1757, mostly set with stones (Nos. 241-252) 12
-  Sir William Fleming, M.P., of Rydall Hall, Co. Westmoreland, son of Major Michael Fleming, by Dorothy Benson his wife, succeeded his uncle Sir George Fleming as 3rd Baronet, 2nd July, 1747, and married Elizabeth, daughter of Christopher Petty of Skipton, in Craven.
- 29 Sir Nathl. Curzon, Bart. An interesting gold Ring with waved shank, enamelled in black and giving the date as 16th November, 1758, and age 83 ; eight other Rings ; and another of the Rev. John Bainbrigge, Rector of Walton-on-the-Wolds, Leicester, to whom an inscribed tablet appears on the South Wall of the Chancel, and another is cut in the lead of the same Church (Nos. 253-262) 10
-  Sir Nathaniel Curzon, 2nd Baronet of the same name, by Sarah, his wife, daughter of William Penn of Penn, Buckinghamshire, Justice of the Common Pleas. See notes to "Visitation of England and Wales", vol. V, p. 97, also the lengthy inscription in Kedleston, Derbyshire.

- 30 An interesting gold Ring of the last month of the Reign of George II, set with a crystal beneath which is some hair, the shank enamelled in white and inscribed "E : Legge . born . 3 . Sep : 1670 aged 84." ; and nine other good Rings, mostly of the years 1759 and 1760 (Nos. 263-272) 10
-  The inscription on the first-named ring is interesting ; the Hon. Elizabeth Legge, second daughter of Lord Dartmouth, actually died at the age of ninety, on the 15th September, 1760. It is only to be supposed that the ring was made in the lifetime of the elderly lady to allow of personal distribution to her friends.
- 31 A George III gold Memorial Ring, another example of a shank with two scrolls intertwined and with separate inscriptions, the bezel in the form of clasped hands, and relating to the Wale family, to whom there is a long inscription on a tablet in the Church at Earls Colne, Essex ; and nine others, enamelled, four set with crystal or amethyst, 1761 (Nos. 273-282) 10
- 32 A George III very small gold Ring, enamelled in black with an inscription relating to Thomas Lister who died, aged thirty-eight, in November, 1761, and who married Beatrice, daughter of Jesop Hulton of Hulton Park, Co. Lancaster, and was M.P. for Clitheroe, 1745-1761 ; eight others for the year 1762 ; and one other interesting Ring of James Godin, director of the French Protestant Hospital, who married M. M. Alavione, a niece of Peter Alavoine (see Ring, no. 129 above) (Nos. 283-292) 10
- 33 Ten George III gold Rings, some well mounted and all enamelled, mostly for the years 1762 and 1763, including the following names : Mytton, Isaacson, Sturgeon, Phillips, Hammond, Brown, Hankinson, Bray and Beavil (Nos. 293-302) 10
- 34 A George III gold Ring, set with a crystal, the shank enamelled in five scrolls and inscribed "William Oswell ob : 16 Aug : 1763 ae 58." ; eight others ; and another, relating to Andrew Ardeckne, Esq., Attorney General of the Isle of Jamaica, to whom there is an inscription in St. Catharine's Cathedral, Spanish Town, Jamaica (Nos. 303-312) 10
-  The Oswell ring is a case in which the date does not correspond to that arrived at from other sources, but is accurate, and the inscription of William Oswell, sometime Mayor of Shrewsbury, in the Parish Church of St. Alkmund, which states that he died on the 15th July, 1763 is erroneous, and this ring is correct. He was the father of William Oswell, see Ring 651 below.

- 35 A George III gold Memorial Ring, set with a crystal beneath which, painted on ivory, is an urn under a willow ; and twelve other Rings, some set with crystals, and one with small rubies (Nos. 313-325) 13
- 36 A George III gold Memorial Ring with oval-shaped bezel, containing a plait of hair within a border of garnets, inscribed at the back of the head "A Berrington ob : 12 Jan 1765 aet 52." (her interesting Will is quoted at length by Crisp, p. 114) ; and seven other Rings, for the years 1764, 1765 (Nos. 326-333) 8
- 37 A very fine George III gold Memorial Ring, elegantly set with an amethyst and four rose diamonds in open-work, the shank enamelled in six scrolls relating to the death of Richard Pett in 1765 ; and fourteen other good Rings, a representative collection, mostly for the years 1765, 1766 (Nos. 334-348) 15
-  The Gent's Mag., vol. 35 (1765), p. 146, states that "Mr. Pett, Master Cooper at the Victualling Office, worth 10,000£". He also left "the Vicars of St. Andrew's Parish and Charles Parish in Plymouth two guineas each to buy them rings in remembrance of me", which perhaps accounts for the good quality of the rings.
- 38 A George III gold Memorial Ring, enamelled in black and inscribed "Willm Reynolds arm : ob 12. June. 1766. aet : 68." ; and nine other Rings (Nos. 349-358) 10
-  The William Reynolds ring is interesting for the Will of this man gives a separate list of seventy-three persons to whom rings were to be presented, a list of these is given by Crisp, p. 119, and includes one for the ring maker himself.
- 39 Ten George III gold Memorial Rings, six with elaborate bezels, two with a tree formed in hair, and one plain gold, enamelled in black "A : Suckling. ob : 5. Jan : 1768. aet : 75." (Nos. 359-368) 10
-  Ann Turner, eldest daughter of Sir Charles Turner of Wareham, Co. Norfolk, married the Rev. Maurice Suckling, D.D., Prebendary of Westminster, she was the mother of Captain Maurice Suckling, and grandmother of Horatio Viscount Nelson, see also Ring no. 298.
- 40 Twelve George III gold Memorial Rings, for the years 1768, 1769, including the following names : Gane, Spackman, Frushard, Turner, Lowes, Southey, Hillson, Morley, Bale, Fry, Armstrong, and Pearse (Nos. 369-380) 12

- 41 Twelve other good George III gold Memorial Rings, with paste, garnet and crystal bezels, one with a tree, another, with an urn, for the years 1768, 1769 (Nos. 381-392) 12
- 42 Twelve other good gold Memorial Rings, of the years 1769, 1770, including those of Lady Chetwode, daughter and co-heiress of Tobias Bretland of Thorncliffe, Co. Chester, to whom there is a slab on the North Wall of Mucklestone Church, Staffordshire, and Sir William Baker, Alderman of London, who married Mary, daughter of Jacob and Mary Tonson (see Ring no. 364) (Nos. 393-404) 12
- 43 A George III plain gold Memorial Ring, enamelled in black, and inscribed "Em : Viscts. Bulkeley-Williams. ob : 18. Aug : 1770 ae : 43." ; another fine Ring, set with an amethyst, commemorating George Grenville, second son of Richard Grenville of Wotton Hall, Buckinghamshire (see D.N.B., vol. 23, p. 113) ; and six other Rings, for the year 1770 (Nos. 405-412) 8
-  Included in this lot is a memorial ring of Thomas Blake, who states in a codicil to his Will "I give Richard Coffin, Esquire, and his sister Miss Bennett a ring of the value of one guinea, each to be made by Mr. Jones".
- 44 An interesting Collection of fifteen George III gold Memorial Rings, exemplifying most types of this period, 1771, 1772 (Nos. 413-427) 15
- 45 A George III gold Memorial Ring, enamelled in black, and inscribed "Hen : A : Earl of Powis. ob : 10. Sep : 1772. aet : 70" ; and eight other Rings, for the year 1772 (Nos. 428-436) 9
-  Scots. Mag., vol. 34, p. 318, for September 11th "At Bath, Henry Arthur Herbert, Earl of Powis". He was buried in the family vault at Welshpool, 21st September, 1772.
- 46 Ten George III gold Memorial Rings, including the following names : Bigot, Myers, Bowles, Filghman, the Hon. Thomas Needham, eldest son of Lord Kilmurray, Masterman, Neat, Beaumont, Terrey, and Little, mostly for the years 1772, 1773 (Nos. 437-446) 10
- 47 Twelve George III Memorial Rings, mostly for the years 1773, 1774, including one of the Rt. James Cranston, Lord Cranston of Cretting in the county of Roxburgh (Nos. 447-458) 12
